About our Claims

The Company no longer has any mining Assets. All mining claims and assets were disposed of and or transferred in exchange of the cancellation of Convertible Notes held by various Note Holders.

About our Online Social Gaming Technology

GMGI has changed the direction of the Company business to focus on software technology.

Whilst there are a number of companies that provide similar products for social online gaming operators, the Company has unique IP and is focused on the Asian market. The unique technology, Company's location, focused resources and experience in this market provide the Company with a distinct advantage over other company's located in other parts of the world and having limited experience in Asia.

Competition

Our primary competition is expected from overseas based online gaming technology companies. With few exceptions, significant listed gaming companies (many of which are listed on the London Stock Exchange) operate using their own software. As an independent online gaming technology provider, we believe that we retain the ability to utilize the most profitable platform available and are not restricted to a single platform. Additionally, by ensuring that we operate in compliance with U.S. laws, we believe that in the event of legalized gaming in the U.S., we would not be precluded from taking advantage of U.S.-based gaming.

As of the date of this report, we have no employees other than our directors. We currently conduct our business using the services of consultants and outside contractors. We do not intend to have any material change in the number of employees over the next 12 months. Where possible, we intend to conduct our business largely through consultants on a contract and fee for service basis.

Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Forward-looking statements

This report on Form 10-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Rule 175 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Rule 3b-6 of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended, that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts, but rather are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about our industry, our beliefs and our assumptions. Words such as “anticipate”, “expects”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “seeks” and “estimates” and variations of these words and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors, some of which are beyond our control and difficult to predict and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in the forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which apply only as of the date of this Form 10-K. Investors should carefully consider all of such risks before making an investment decision with respect to the Company’s stock. The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements for Golden Matrix Group, Inc. Such discussion represents only the best present assessment from our Management.

At July 31, 2018, we had a cash balance of $446,581. The Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), at the time of approving the consolidation of financial statements, expects that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. As such, the Company continues to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

If we are not successful in raising additional financing, we anticipate that we will not be able to proceed with our business plan. In such a case, we may decide to discontinue our current business plan and seek other business opportunities. Any business opportunity would require our management to perform due diligence on possible acquisitions. Such due diligence would likely include purchase investigations costs such as professional fees by consultants. It is anticipated that additional funds will be required to close any possible acquisition. During this period, we will need to maintain our periodic filings with the appropriate regulatory authorities and will incur legal and accounting costs. Although we are actively exploring such opportunities, there can be no assurance that our efforts in this regard will be successful. If no other such opportunities are available and we cannot raise additional capital to sustain minimum operations, we may be forced to discontinue business. We do not have any specific alternative business opportunities in mind and have not planned for any such contingency.

Based on the nature of our business, we anticipate incurring operating losses in the foreseeable future. We base this expectation, in part, on the fact that we need to complete development of our online gaming sites and invest in the acquisition of players. Our future financial results are also uncertain due to a number of factors, some of which are outside of our control. These factors include the following:

- our ability to raise additional funding;
- competition in the online gaming technology area; and
- the regulatory climate for online gaming.

Due to our lack of operating history and present inability to generate substantial recurring revenues, our auditors have raised doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

The following Management Discussion and Analysis should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in this Form 10-K.

Results of Operations

Revenues

We generated $915,804 revenues during the year ended July 31, 2018 as compared to $120,000 for the year ended July 31, 2017. The increase of the revenue was mainly due to the change of business content related to the management of a social gaming system and providing online gaming software and technology during 2018.

Cost of goods sold

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, cost of goods sold were $72,003 and $50,000, respectively. The increase was due to the consulting expense on the stock options granted to consultants in the 2018 Equity Incentive Plan, which directly contributed to the revenue generating GM2 asset.

General and administrative Expenses

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, general and administrative expenses were $395,140 and $250,602, respectively. The increase in general and administrative expense was primarily a result of the consulting agreements. General and administrative expenses consisted primarily of advertising and promotion expenses, general office expenses and consulting fees.

Compensation Expense - Acquisition Cost - Related Party

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, compensation expense acquisition cost-related party expense was $1,242,812 and $0. The increase in General and Administrative Acquisition Cost was a result of an Asset Purchase Agreement entered into on February 28, 2018, with Luxor Capital, LLC (“Luxor”), which is wholly owned by Company’s Chief Executive Officer Anthony Goodman. Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Company purchased certain Intellectual Property and Know-how (the “GM2 Asset”).

Professional fees

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, professional fees were $67,687 and $69,834, respectively. The decrease in professional fees was primarily a result of the decrease in auditing fees. Professional fees consisted primarily of SEC filing fees, legal fees and accounting and audit fees.

Amortization Expense

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, amortization expenses were $129,109 and $0, respectively. The increasing of amortization expense was due to the stock options and warrants granted in the 2018 Equity Incentive Plan.

Interest Expense

During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, interest expense was $162,041 and $413,655, respectively. During the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, amortization of debt discount expense was $78,261 and $303,764, respectively. The decrease in interest expense and amortization of debt discount expense was mainly due to the Note Settlement and Termination Agreement signed on October 24, 2017 with Union Capital LLC, and Settlement Agreement and Mutual General Release signed on May 29, 2018 with LG Capital LLC.

Gain (loss) on derivative liability - note conversion feature

Gain (loss) on derivative liability - note conversion feature was $165,514 for the year ended July 31, 2018 as compared to gain of $1,611,153 for the year ended July 31, 2017. The change primarily resulted from the fluctuation of the Company’s stock price which impacted the value of the derivative liability.

Gain on extinguishment of debt

Gain on extinguishment of debt was $129 for the year ended July 31, 2018 as compared to $854,018 for the year ended July 31, 2017. The change primarily resulted from the Note Settlement and Termination Agreement signed on October 24, 2017 with Union Capital LLC, and Settlement Agreement and Mutual General Release signed on May 29, 2018 with LG Capital LLC.

Net Income (loss)

We sustained a loss of $1,318,373 and had a net income of $1,801,080 for the years ended July 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The increase in net loss was a result of the items discussed above.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our cash provided by operating activities for the year ended July 31, 2018 was $302,712 compared to $15,129 used in operating activities for the year ended July 31, 2017. The increase in cash provided in operations was primarily attributable to the collections of accounts receivables from our customers in 2018.

Our cash provided by financing activities for the year ended July 31, 2018 was $118,698 as compared to $38,000, for the year ended July 31, 2017. The increase is mainly due to the proceeds from the subscription agreements.

There were no investing activities for the year ended July 31, 2018 and 2017.

The Company had $446,581 in cash at July 31, 2018. We believe the Company has adequate cash flow and will be able to secure and provide adequate resources and financing to implement its strategic objectives in upcoming quarters, although we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain such additional financing, on acceptable terms, or at all, which may require us to reduce our operating costs and other expenditures, including reductions of personnel and capital expenditures. Failure to adequately control operating costs and other expenditures raise new capital or to operate a viable business with reduced operating costs and other expenditures may cause the business to fail, which, in turn, will result in the loss of the investments of our investors.

There are no assurances that we will be able to achieve further sales of our common stock or any other form of additional financing. If we are unable to achieve the financing necessary to continue our plan of operations, then our venture will fail.

Off-balance sheet arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements including arrangements that would affect our liquidity, capital resources, market risk support and credit risk support or other benefits.

Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company suffered a net loss from operations and has a net capital deficiency, which raises doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding those matters are described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

GOLDEN MATRIX GROUP, INC.
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Golden Matrix Group, Inc. (“GMGI” or the “Company”), a Nevada corporation, formed on June 4, 2008, under the name Ibox Resources Corp., has a global presence with offices in Las Vegas Nevada and Sydney Australia. GMGI’s sophisticated social gaming software supports multiple languages including English and Chinese.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of GMGI include the accounts of GMGI and its wholly-owned subsidiary, companies IRC Exploration Ltd., (“IRC”) a company incorporated in Alberta, Canada on August 1, 2008; Northern Bonanza Inc., (“NBI”) a company incorporated in Ontario, Canada on June 30, 2010; Source Bonanza LLC, (“SB”) a Limited Liability Company incorporated in Nevada, USA on June 18, 2010; and Vulture Gold LLC (“Vulture”), a Nevada Limited Liability Company which was acquired on August 7, 2010, and have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. All intercompany balances have been eliminated.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of GMGI have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and had a net working capital deficit of $1,341,303 at July 31, 2018. These factors raise substantial doubt regarding the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Without realization of additional capital, it would be unlikely for GMGI to continue as a going concern. GMGI’s management plans on raising cash from public or private debt or equity financing, on an as needed basis, and in the longer term, revenues from the gambling business. GMGI’s ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on these additional cash financings, and ultimately upon achieving profitable operations through the development of its online gaming business.

NOTE 3 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the balance sheet. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Allowance for doubtful accounts

The allowance for doubtful accounts reflects our best estimate of probable losses inherent in the accounts receivable balance. The Company determines the allowance based on known troubled accounts, historical experience, and other currently available evidence. As of July 31, 2018 and 2017, there were no allowances for doubtful accounts.

Table of Contents

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Derivative Instruments

We review the terms of the common stock, warrants and convertible debt we issue to determine whether there are embedded derivative instruments, including embedded conversion options, which are required to be bifurcated and accounted for separately as derivative financial instruments. In circumstances where the host instrument contains more than one embedded derivative instrument, including the conversion option, that is required to be bifurcated, the bifurcated derivative instruments are accounted for as a single, compound derivative instrument.

Bifurcated embedded derivatives are initially recorded at fair value and are then revalued at each reporting date with changes in the fair value reported as non-operating income or expense. When the equity or convertible debt instruments contain embedded derivative instruments that are to be bifurcated and accounted for as liabilities, the total proceeds received are first allocated to the fair value of all the bifurcated derivative instruments. The remaining proceeds, if any are then allocated to the host instruments themselves, usually resulting in those instruments being recorded as a discount from their face value.

Derivatives are measured at their fair value on the balance sheet. Changes in fair value are recorded in the statement of operation.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of expenditures for domain names and certain intellectual properties acquired for an online horse racing product the Company is developing. The intangible assets are recorded at cost and amortized over its estimated useful life of 3 years.

Contingent Liabilities

We record contingent liabilities when we believe that it is both probable that a loss has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Significant judgment is required to determine both probability and the estimated amount. We review these provisions quarterly and adjust these provisions accordingly to reflect the impact of negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel, and updated information.

Long Lived Assets

Long-lived assets to be held and used or disposed of other than by sale are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. When required, impairment losses on assets to be held and used or disposed of other than by sale are recognized based on the fair value of the asset. Long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale are reported at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Debt Discount

Debt discount is amortized over the term of the related debt using the effective interest rate method.

Table of Contents

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset, or paid to transfer a liability, in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A three-tier fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). These tiers include:

- Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets;
- Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable, such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and
- Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions, such as valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

Our financial instruments include cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, notes payable, convertible notes payable, advances from shareholder, and derivative liabilities. The carrying values of these financial instruments approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature. The derivative liabilities are stated at their fair value as a level 3 measurement. The Company used a Black-Scholes model to determine the fair values of these derivative liabilities.

Stock-Based Compensation

Stock-based compensation expense is recorded for stock and stock options awarded in return for services rendered. The expense is measured at the grant-date fair value of the award and recognized as compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the service period, which is typically the vesting period. The Company estimates forfeitures that it expects will occur and records expense based upon the number of awards expected to vest.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and loss carry-forwards and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of a change in tax rules on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in operations in the year of change. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is “more likely-than-not” that a deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Earnings (Loss) Per Common Share

Basic net earnings (loss) per common share are computed by dividing net earnings (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net earnings (loss) per common share is determined using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period, adjusted for the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents. In periods when losses are reported, the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding excludes common stock equivalents, because their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

The dilutive effect of outstanding stock options and warrants is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the treasury stock method. The dilutive effect of outstanding convertible securities is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the if-converted method.

For the year ended July 31, 2018 the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding excludes common stock equivalents, because their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

Revenues

Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the fee is fixed or determinable, and collectability is probable, which is in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 605, Revenue Recognition. According to Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, our company recognize revenue with the following steps:

1. Step 1: Identify the contract with a customer.
2. Step 2: Identify the separate performance obligations in the contract.
3. Step 3: Determine the transaction price.
4. Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the separate performance obligations in the contract.
5. Step 5: Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Reclassification

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to current period presentation.

Subsequent Events

GMGI evaluated subsequent events through the date these financial statements were issued for disclosure purposes.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In February 2016, a pronouncement was issued that creates new accounting and reporting guidelines for leasing arrangements. The new guidance requires organizations that lease assets to recognize assets and liabilities on the balance sheet related to the rights and obligations created by those leases, regardless of whether they are classified as finance or operating leases. Consistent with current guidance, the recognition, measurement, and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease primarily will depend on its classification as a finance or operating lease. The guidance also requires new disclosures to help financial statement users better understand the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. The new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within that reporting period, with early application permitted. The new standard is to be applied using a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the new pronouncement on its financial statements.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718). The FASB issued this update to improve the accounting for employee share-based payments and affect all organizations that issue share based payment awards to their employees. Several aspects of the accounting for share-based payment award transactions are simplified, including: (a) income tax consequences; (b) classification of awards as either equity or liabilities; and (c) classification on the statement of cash flows. The updated guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption of the updates is permitted. Management is currently evaluating the new guidance to determine the impact it will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In July 2017, the FASB issued Accounting Standards update (“ASU”) 2017-11, Earning Per share (Topic 260), Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity (Topic 480), Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815): (Part I) Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Down Round Features, (Part II) Replacement of the Indefinite Deferral for Mandatorily Redeemable Financial Instruments of Certain Nonpublic Entities and Certain Mandatorily Redeemable Non-controlling Interests with a Scope Exception. Part I of this update change the classification analysis of certain equity-linked financial instruments (or embedded features) with down round features. The amendments in Part II, of this update recharacterize the indefinite deferral of certain provisions of Topic 480 that now are presented as pending content in the Codification, to a scope exception.

On November 17, 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-18, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Restricted Cash, a consensus of the FASB’s Emerging Issues Force (the “Task Force”). The new standard requires that the statement of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. Entities will also be required to reconcile such total to amounts on the balance sheet and disclose the nature of the restrictions. AUS No. 2016-18 is effective for public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017. The Company does not believe this ASU will have an impact on our results of operation, cash flows, other than presentation, or financial condition.

The Company does not believe that any other recently issued effective pronouncements, or pronouncements issued but not yet effective, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE 4 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE-RELATED PARTY

Accounts receivable-related party are carried at their estimated collectible amounts. Trade accounts receivable are periodically evaluated for collectability based on past credit history with customers and their current financial condition. The company has account receivable-related party, $262,288 and $62,500 in year 2018 and 2017 respectively.

NOTE 5 - INTANGIBLE ASSETS

On February 22, 2016 the Company entered into a Know-How and Asset Purchase Agreement with Luxor Capital, LLC, whereby the Company acquired Gaming IP and know-how. The purchase price for these assets consisted of a convertible note in the amount of $ 2,874,712, included $2,374,712 payable to Luxor Capital, LLC and 1,666,667 shares of the Company's common stock. During the year ended July 31, 2016, management evaluated the carrying value on the intellectual property and recorded an impairment of $2,874,712 due to uncertain recoverability.

NOTE 6 - NOTES PAYABLE

Convertible Note #2

On March 19, 2012, the Company received $30,000 cash from the issuance of a convertible promissory note in the amount of $30,000. The promissory note is unsecured, interest free and repayable upon demand. As of July 31, 2018 and 2017, principal of this note was $30,000 and $30,000, respectively.

The note may be converted at the option of the holder into Common stock of the Company. The fixed conversion price is $0.01 per share. Accordingly the note may be converted into 2,000 common shares of the Company.

The Company determined that this Promissory note should be accounted for in accordance with FASB ASC 470-20 which addresses "Accounting for Convertible Securities with Beneficial Conversion Features". The beneficial conversion feature is calculated at its intrinsic value (that is, the difference between the conversion price $0.01 and the fair value of the common stock into which the debt is convertible at the commitment date (per share being $0.08), multiplied by the number of shares into which the debt is convertible. The valuation of the beneficial conversion feature recorded cannot be greater than the face value of the note issued. As of July 31, 2018, debt discount balance $0 was recorded.

Convertible Note #31

On March 17, 2014, the Company received funding pursuant to a convertible promissory note in the amount of $26,500. The promissory note is unsecured, bears interest at 8% per annum, and matures on March 17, 2015. The holder has the right after a period of 180 days to convert the balance outstanding into the Company's common stock at a rate equal to 50% of the lowest closing prices during the ten trading days prior to the conversion date.

Upon the holder's option to convert becoming active the Company recorded a debt discount and derivative liability of $42,734 being the fair value of the conversion feature which was determined using the Black-Scholes valuation model. The debt discount is accreted to the statement of operations using the effective interest rate method over the term of the note or to the date of conversion, and the derivative liability is revalued at each reporting date to fair value. Any change in fair value is credited or charged to the statement of operations in the period. Debt discount of the note was amortized to $0 on March 17, 2015.

During the year ended July 31, 2018, the Company issued 71,464,540 shares of common stock for the conversion of this note in the amount of $9,550. NOTE 12 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Certain conditions may exist as of the date the financial statements are issued, which may result in a loss to the Company but which will only be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur. The Company's management and its legal counsel assess such contingent liabilities, and such assessment inherently involves an exercise of judgment. In assessing loss contingencies related to legal proceedings that are pending against the Company or unasserted claims that may result in such proceedings, the Company's legal counsel evaluates the perceived merits of any legal proceedings or unasserted claims brought to such legal counsel's attention as well as the perceived merits of the amount of relief sought or expected to be sought therein.

If the assessment of a contingency indicates that it is probable that a material loss has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be estimated, then the estimated liability would be accrued in the Company's financial statements. If the assessment indicates that a potentially material loss contingency is not probable, but is reasonably possible, or is probable but cannot be estimated, then the nature of the contingent liability, together with an estimate of the range of possible loss if determinable and material, would be disclosed.

Loss contingencies considered remote are generally not disclosed unless they involve guarantees, in which case the nature of the guarantee would be disclosed.

NOTE 13 - ACQUISITION OF BUSINESS

On February 28, 2018, the company entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Luxor Capital, LLC. Pursuant to the agreement the company purchased certain Intellectual Property and Know-how (the "GM2 Asset"), which were valued at $0 due to the fact that this was a related party acquisition and the prior entity's cost basis was $0 in the assets. In exchange for the GM2 asset, the company issued 625,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $187,500 based on closing market price on the date of the agreement as well as an earn-out payment which states that the Company, on or before April 30, 2019, will issue an earn-out note calculated at 50% of the revenues generated by the GM2 Asset system during the 12-month period of March 1, 2018 to February 28, 2019.

Related to the earn-out note, the Company recorded a contingent liability of $1,055,312 for the potential liability due to Luxor; see Note 14. A description of the manner by which the earn-out note was valued is set forth at Note 3.

The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination. Based upon its analysis of the above facts, the Company determined that the acquisition of the GM2 System was also a related party transaction. Accordingly, the asset acquired was recorded on the cost basis at the time of the acquisition with the total cost being recorded to compensation expense.

The assets acquired and liabilities assumed were comprised of the following:

Cash and cash equivalents	$	-
Total assets acquired		-
Contingent liability		1,055,312
Common stock issued for acquisition		187,500
Total liabilities assumed and common shares issued		1,242,812
Net compensation expense - related party	$	1,242,812

As the predecessor company was not using the assets in the same manner as the Company, no proforma financials are presented.

NOTE 14 - CONTINGENT LIABILITY

The Company recorded a contingent liability to reflect the earn-out note calculated at 50% of the revenues generated by the GM2 Asset system starting from March 1, 2018 till February 28, 2019. The estimated potential obligation with this agreement was recorded at a fair value of $1,055,312, as of July 31, 2018, based upon the actual and projected revenues from these assets. However, it is not possible for our company to estimate the potential future payments exactly until after February 28, 2019; therefore, this amount will be adjusted quarterly to ensure that the value is as accurate as possible until the final amount is known.

NOTE 15 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On September 10, 2018, the Company entered into Settlement Agreement with Luxor Capital LLC ("Luxor") whereby the parties agreed to release each other from any, and all liabilities relating to the Convertible Promissory Note issued by the Company in favor of Luxor which was dated March 1, 2016 and in the original principal amount of $2,874,712. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Company agreed to pay out the remaining balance of the said note totaling $649,414 by converting $209,414 into common stock at a conversion price $0.001, by making a payment of $150,000 and by entering into an interest free loan for the balance of $290,000, such loan to be repaid in two equal installments of $145,000 on the 10th September 2019 and 10th September 2020. On August 28, 2018, the Company entered into Settlement Agreement and Mutual General Release (the "Settlement Agreement") with LG Capital Funding LLC ("LG") whereby the parties agreed to release each other from any, and all liabilities relating to the Convertible Promissory Note (Note 46). In this Settlement Agreement, the Company agreed to pay out the remaining balance of the note Principal $1,930, Accrued Interest $154.40, Default Interest and Penalty $6,033.20 totaling $8,117.60. Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

There have been no changes in or disagreements with our accountants on accounting and financial disclosure during the two fiscal years through to the date of this Report.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure controls and procedures

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the year ended July 31, 2018 covered by this Form 10-K. Based upon such evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end of such period, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as required under Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

The management of the Company is responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements and related financial information appearing in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. The consolidated financial statements and notes have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The management of the Company is also responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act. A company's internal control over financial reporting is defined as a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Our internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- Pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
- Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the issuer are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and
- Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial officer, does not expect that the Company's disclosure controls and internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. Because of its inherent limitations, a system of internal control over financial reporting can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met and may not prevent or detect misstatements. Further, over time, control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

With the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, our management evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of July 31, 2018 based upon the framework in Internal Control -Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO 2013). Based on that evaluation, our management has concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of July 31, 2018. The Company had material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting. Specifically, management identified the following material weaknesses at July 31, 2018:

1. Lack of oversight by independent directors in the establishment and monitoring of required internal controls and procedures;
2. Lack of functioning audit committee, resulting in ineffective oversight in the establishment and monitoring of required internal controls and procedures;
3. Insufficient personnel resources within the accounting function to segregate the duties over financial transaction processing and reporting and to allow for proper monitoring controls over accounting;
4. Insufficient written policies and procedures over accounting transaction processing and period end financial disclosure and reporting processes;
5. The company did not establish a formal written policy for the approval, identification and authorization of related party transactions.

To remediate our internal control weaknesses, management intends to implement the following measures:

- The Company will add sufficient number of independent directors to the board and appoint an audit committee.
- The Company will add sufficient knowledgeable accounting personnel to properly segregate duties and to effect a timely, accurate preparation of the financial statements.
- Upon the hiring of additional accounting personnel, the Company will develop and maintain adequate written accounting policies and procedures.

The additional hiring is contingent upon the Company's efforts to obtain additional funding through equity or debt for its continued operational activities and corporate expenses. Management expects to secure funds in the coming fiscal year but provides no assurances that it will be able to do so.

We understand that remediation of material weaknesses and deficiencies in internal controls are a continuing work in progress due to the issuance of new standards and promulgations. However, remediation of any known deficiency is among our highest priorities. Our management will periodically assess the progress and sufficiency of our ongoing initiatives and make adjustments as and when necessary.

This annual report does not include an attestation report of our registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by our registered public accounting firm pursuant rules of the SEC that permit us to provide only management's report in this annual report. On July 21, 2010, President Obama signed the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Included in the Act is a provision that permanently exempts smaller public companies that qualify as either a Non-Accelerated Filer or Smaller Reporting Company from the auditor attestation requirement of Section 404(b) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls

The Company's management does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent or detect all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the control system's objectives will be met. Further, the design of the control system must reflect that there are resource constraints and that the benefits must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Controls can also be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override of controls. The design of any system of controls is based in part on certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Projections of any evaluation of controls effectiveness to future periods are subject to risks. Over time, controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or deterioration in the degree of compliance with policies or procedures.

As of July 31st, 2018, the Company did not establish a formal written policy for the approval, identification and authorization of related party transactions
